N o t e

Subject:- Whether the Sri Gopalakrishna swami temple ~~ak~~ in Tolasithotam at Bangal should be treated as a Muzrai or private institution.

The question was raised in L.R. File No.493 of 1906-07 which pertains to application of Mr. B. V. Krishniengar for the transfer of the kavamgutta village o Taralu in the Kankanahalli Taluk from his name to the name of Sri Gopalakrishnaswami In 1907, the then Muzrai Secretary Mr. Anantaswami Rao opined that the institutio was strictly speaking not a Muzrai institu tion for the reason that it is not endowed with either cash grant or land inam from Government. He ~~clearly stated~~ considered it that it was a private one under the management of the members of the family of the late S. Mara-Garudachar, and that at the time of the Inm Settlement in 1880 the village was confirme to the temple and Mr. Garudachar was put down as Manager thereof. Thereupon the then Councillor Mr. Puttanna Chetty out in the following side remarks,--

"It is a question whether a Devadaya grant does not imply a certain amount of control by Government.

In answer to this it has been noted In the Inam Register the village is treated as personal and not Devadaya, but in Government Order No 4035/200 dated 1st September 1880 it is stated that the village has been registered in the name of the temple as Devadaya." The question was not sifted further. The circumstances under which this village was first con firmed in the name of the temple and then transferred to the name of Mr R [illegible] Varadiengar have been set forth in paras 1 to 5 of the note in the above file and the Inam Register attached thereto. The it will be seen that on the cont of Mr. B. K. Venkatavaradiengar that the interference of Government regarding the management of the temple funds was not warranted, as the institution was their own and not endowed by Government it has been more than once observed that the village was assigned by the former owner (Mr. Thimmapparaj Urs) to the family of Mr. B.K. Venkatavardiengar in trust for the support and maintenance of the temple and it was obviously necessary in permitting the alienation of the village, an assignment of its equivalent value in money for the benefit of the temple should be provided i a formal trust deed. The money value not having been paid as stated by Mr. B. V. Krishniengar himself the intermediary circumstance of the transfer of the villag to the name of Mr. B. K Venkataverado Iyengar did not alter the situation.

In 1909 ~~a petition was filed pertaining to the~~ an application for ~~of the manager and~~ par-karta Mr B. G Kesava Iyengar for the acceptance of a deposit of Rs.6000/- ~~at the favourable rate of 4% interest~~ for the benefit of the temple under the charitable endowment rules of 1908. ~~the~~ 1st Councillor Mr. K. P. Puttanna Chetty was not in favour of accepting the deposit on the score that the institution to be benefited was a private one over which Government or the Muzrai Department has no control. However Government ordered the acceptance of a deposit to the extent of Rs.25 000/ the manager being required to maintain regular accounts, make them available for inspection by Government Officers and also submit to Government an annual report on the affairs of the temple with an abstract of accounts. No such report seems to have been received till now nor is institution inspected by any Government Officer to see whether regular accounts are maintained. Under the present managers Mr. B. G. Keshavacharya and his son Mr. B Gundachar the institution with the temple attached thereto appears to be well [illegible]

And the file contains discussion on the subject the Govt. may exercise over the affairs of the institution

Request the SB concerned to inform whether any accounts have been furnished by the manager upto now maintained and efficient arrangements made for the conduct of services therein. It is a point whether the wishes of these gentlemen may be ascertained beforehand in respect of formally declaring the temple as a Muzrai institution.

The extent of the endowed village is 1241 acres and 39 guntas of which 69 acres and 32 guntas are unculturable, the survey assessment and annual gutta being Rs.562-6 and Rs.435/- respectively. Besides this there is the money deposit of Rs.6000/- which at 4% fetches Rs.240/ annually.

Strictly speaking ~~Scrutinized in the light of the~~ definition of Muzrai institution contained i S.1(?) ~~of the Muzrai Regulation~~, the institution does not seem to be a Muzrai institu as (a) no inam was granted to the temple by Government and (b) it was confirmed as personal to the temple ~~and by~~ which grant alienation fro original grantee. In forwarding Mr.H V

Krishniengar's petition for disposal,

Government have stated that they have no objection to the village being registered in the name of the temple. The Inam Superintendent has taken action registering the grant as Devadaya. (Vide extract from current Inam Register ~~xxx~~ put up). The order of 1882 is also submitted. A grant personal in its origin cannot, it is submitted, be made Devadaya subsequently. The rights accruing to the temple by transfer are not of course affected.

Superintendent of the

Sir

With reference to Dewan's Proceedings No. 6156 dated 2nd November, Copy of which you have kindly furnished me, I beg to state that the Kayamgutta village Taraku yielded when in a flourishing State the maximum Revenue of Rs 360/- annually Exclusive of the gutta amount but the revenue gradually decreased until the average income has come down to only 42 during the past 10 years. With a view to perpetuate the charity established by my father and to place it on a basis of certainty beyond the risk of fluctuation according to change of Seasons and the nature of management, I with the consent of my brothers who are joint trustees, have thought it fit to convert the land into 4 per cent Government Securities. Rs 10,000 will accordingly be invested in the name of the or trustees for the time being in lieu of the above village, and this amount will fetch Rs 400/- a year which I hope will be considered more than Equivalent to the present or any prospective value of the village in question. I may add for the information of His Highness's Government that besides the above Sum, Rs 6000/- will also be similarly invested by us for the benefit of the charity in question. The Government will thus see that the proposed alienation of the village is solely for the benefit of the institution and I beg that the same will be sanctioned at an early date.

I beg to remain
Most respected Sir
Your most obedient Servant.

Sir

I have been favored with your Docket Rev No 477 of the 30th Ultimo regarding Prasana Krishnaswamy alias Gopal Krishnaswamy Court at Bangalore

2 In reply, I beg to state that the institution is our own, and that it is not allowed by Government as appear to have been assumed by the fact of certain direction having been issued regarding the management of the funds the facts are these.

3 My grandfather built the Temple at his own expense, indowed it to the extent, of 2500 Rs in cash, and got his friend Timmappay Rw to add to the endowment by assigning over to him one of his Villages, viz Tarlu, for the benefit of the Temple. Past years' experience showed that the retention of the Village for the temple was disadvan tageous to it as the receipts from it gradually lessened from various causes and failed to cover the expenses of institution, and accord ingly my late father, Sri Krishnaiyar and his brothers, Mrs Ganapathy and Sivaram Iyer proposed to sell the Villages and invest the pro ceeds and the aforesaid 2500/Rs. in Government securities along with which they had to subscribe to make up uncle (Mr Gavaudachar) had got the Village registered in the name of the temple, but preferred doing so after getting a title deed issued in the name of the purchaser as a better security, although such a measure was not absolutely necessary inasmuch as the Dasadya was not one created by Government to become inalienable, and as the donee (i.e the temple its Manager) was perfectly at liberty to sell it for proper and full consideration when the so doing was considered, to be to its advantage A representation

tion therefore, was made to the Government in order to have the Village re-registered as a personal grant as before. This the Diwan having been pleased to direct we shall proceed to give effect to our proposals in due manner 4. The village being con tiguous to our Rajkipur property, my father agreed to take it over timely and pay a lump sum of 10,400 Rs. as its value inclusive of his share of the amount to be contributed to make up 16000 as aforesaid the remaining 3,100 Rs. being made up by my uncle.
5. I have written at this length

with simply to show that in our humble opinion it is unnecessary to burden the institution with the expense of drawing up a formal trust deed, and re gistering it, and that we might humbly claim to be left to ourselves to manage the funds set apart by us for the benefit of our temple in a manner best suited to per petuate the memory of our an

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Kazanguttu village of Varalu in the Bankankalli Taluk was according to the Inam system a personal Inam granted to one Timm appanajlu who in 1842 endowed it to the temple of Sri Gopala Krishnaswami at Bayar by a deed of gift and handed it over to Venkatrayya father of M.B. Sunda Char who was then the manager of the temple. At the time of the Inam settlement the village was confirmed to the temple. In June 1888 M. Sunda Char represented that the village may be continued in his own name as he had made alterations and improvements on the mankhan of the temple. After some
